What would you tell others to convince them they should join Arsenal and use its products and services instead of doing business with a bank? What is so special about credit unions that makes them different from other financial institutions? Is doing business with a not-for-profit organization and a locally based financial institution important to you? Explain why or why not.

Option #2: Explain why financial education and financial literacy are important for you and our society. Please share your own experiences with these important life skills. As a future college student, how will you manage your finances?
